Bradfield Tennis Centre would like to invite you to join the Red Super Series programme. Super Series sessions are invitation-al, and as such, we are able to control who has access to them, helping to maintain the level within the session.

These sessions have three purposes:

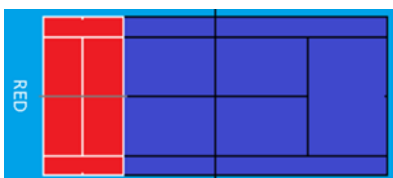

- 1) They allow like-minded players to get together and play.
- 2) They provide an opportunity to move towards competing in tennis as well as training.
- 3) They can provide a gateway to our Performance Programme.

To access the Super Series programme, players are expected to sign up to a minimum of 2 sessions a week.
